

PENN CHARTER LIBRARY

2017 FIFTH GRADE SUMMER READING!

FICTION CHAPTER BOOKS

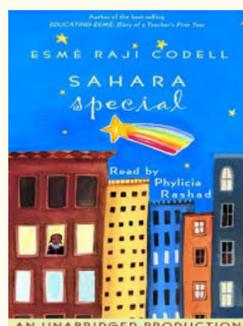

(* = series)

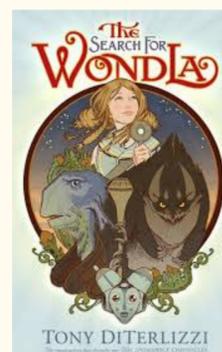

Four sisters, ages four through twelve, share adventures with a local boy, much to the dismay of his snobbish mother. *

Gregor finds himself in a world far below New York City where humans must coexist and survive in a land with giant rats, cockroaches, spiders, bats and more. *

Struggling with school and her feelings since her father left, Sahara gets a fresh start with a new teacher who supports her talents and the individuality of everyone. *

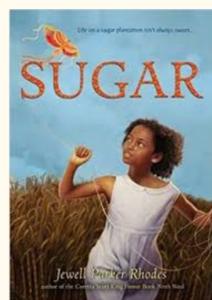

Set in the future, Eva Nine's underground home is destroyed and she must head to the surface and face all sorts of dangers and adventures. Is she the last human?*

Will ends up as an apprentice to a Ranger, the corps that protects the kingdom through stealth and skills. Evil threatens the kingdom, so Will gets involved. *

Danny is an avid basketball player, but doesn't make the 7th-grade team because he is short. His father, an ex-NBA star, decides to start a youth team for the kids who were cut.

After the Civil War, Sugar's family decides to stay on the plantation and work. Conflict arises when Chinese workers arrive to replace the former slaves who have left.

Kidnappings, spell casting, Brownies, boggarts, dastardly villains and wizards add lively scenery and action throughout this magyk-filled adventure. *

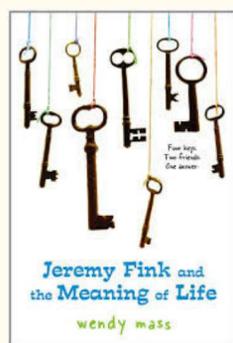

Auggie was born with severe facial disfigurement and has always been home-schooled. About to enroll in a school, he must deal with stares and comments as he tries to fit in.*

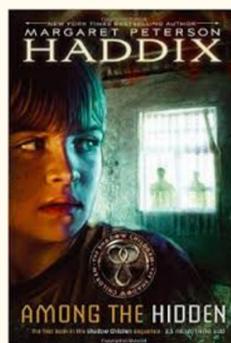

After passing a series of tests, four children are selected for a secret mission that requires them to go undercover at a place where the only rule is that there are no rules.*

A TV star disappears in the Everglades, Wahoo and classmate Tuna set out to find him, but they must avoid Tuna's gun-happy father.

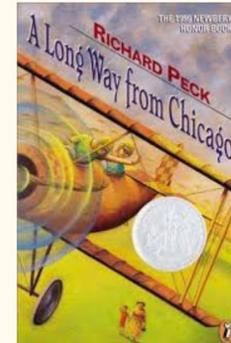

Jeremy receives a keyless locked box--set aside by his father before his death five years earlier--that purportedly contains the meaning of life.

Set in the future, families are only allowed to have 2 children. Luke, as a third child, is constantly in hiding...until he sees another Third.*

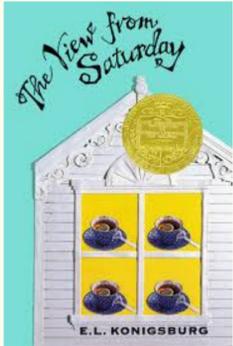

Ghost, a talented runner and troublemaker, is recruited for an elite track team, but he has to stay on track, both literally and figuratively.

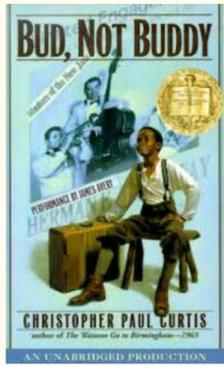

A boy recounts his annual summer trips to rural Illinois with his sister during the Great Depression to visit their larger-than-life grandmother.

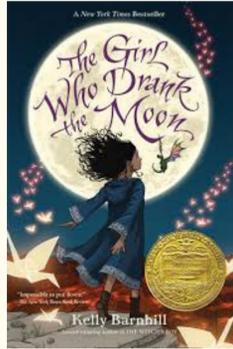

AWARD WINNERS

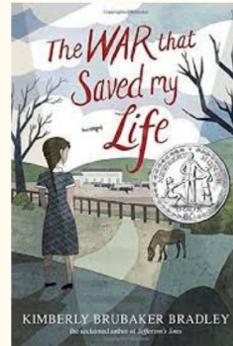

Four sixth-graders win the chance to compete in the state quiz bowl, and call upon their own different circumstances and experiences.

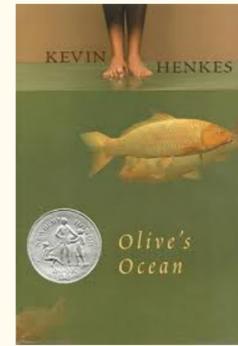

Set in the 1930's, Bud, an orphan, is convinced that his father is a famous musician and sets off to find his dad.

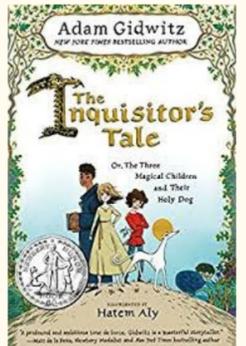

A young girl is raised by a witch, a swamp monster, and a Perfectly Tiny Dragon and must unlock the powerful magic buried deep inside her.

A young disabled girl and her brother are evacuated from London to the English countryside during World War II.

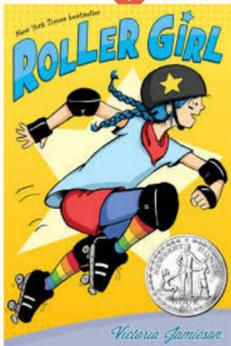

During her summer vacation, twelve-year-old Martha must deal with the death of a classmate, her ailing grandmother, and her feelings for a local boy.

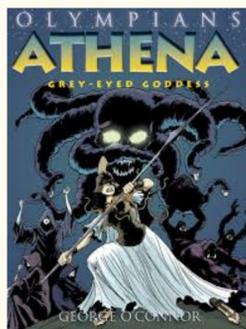

Three children meet: William, on a mission from his monastery; Jacob, a Jewish boy who has fled his burning village; and Jeanne, a peasant girl who hides her prophetic visions.

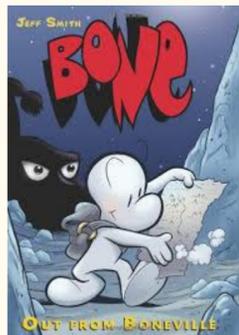

GRAPHIC NOVELS

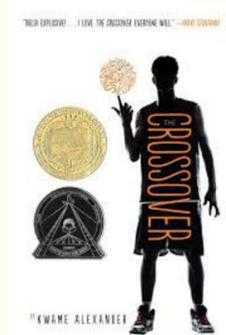

A girl goes to roller derby camp while at the same time dealing with the realization that she and her best friend are drifting apart.

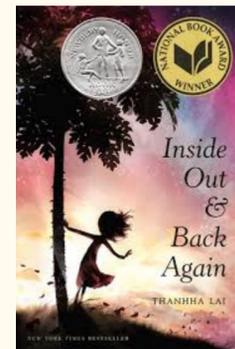

Discover Greek mythology and learn about the Titans and the rise of the gods of Olympus.*

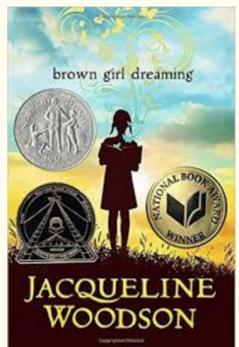

Three cousins stumble into a valley of monsters, magic, an exiled princess and a dragon in this adventure-packed story.*

Twins Josh and Jordan are phenomenal basketball players who have to deal with some problems on and off the court.

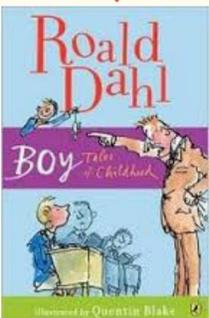

Hà and her family flee war-torn Vietnam and relocate in the American South. Hà struggles to find her place.

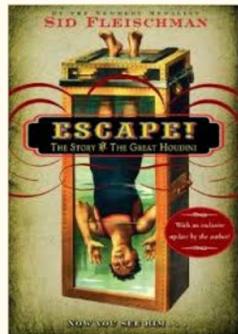

Written in verse, the author describes her childhood growing up in the North and the South.

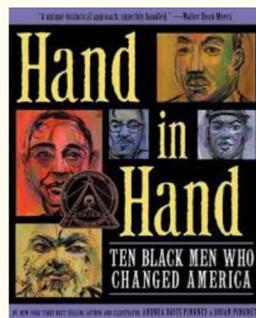

NONFICTION & BIOGRAPHIES

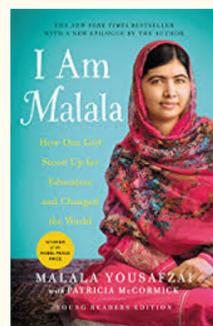

Learn about author Roald Dahl's childhood in this humorous autobiography.*

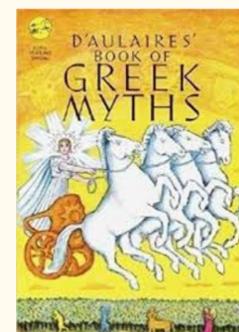

Learn about the life of the famous magician, Harry Houdini, in this fascinating biography.

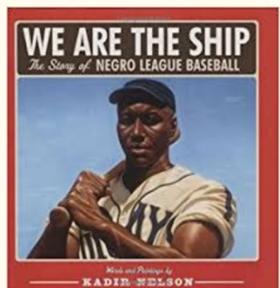

This is an award-winning collective biography of ten black men who helped shape the history of the United States.

This is the Young Readers Edition of Malala's memoir, detailing her childhood, the rise of the Taliban, and how she stood up for what she believed in.

Read about all the Greek gods and goddesses in Greek mythology in the beautifully illustrated classic.

This book describes the Negro baseball league in the early 1900s, profiling its star athletes and highlighting the challenges faced by the players.