2022 FIFTH GRADE SUMMER READING!

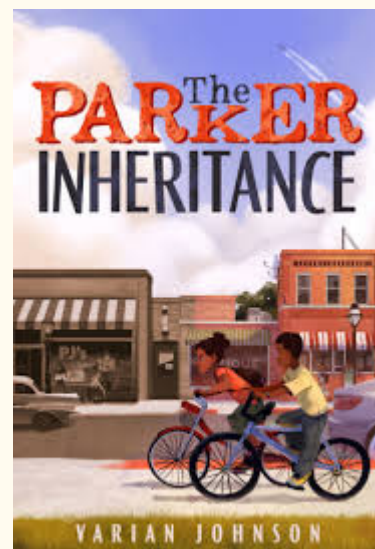

FICTION CHAPTER BOOKS

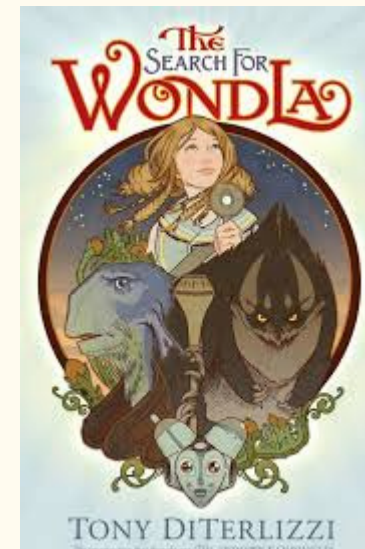

Four sisters, ages four through twelve, share adventures with a local boy, much to the dismay of his snobbish mother. *

Gregor finds himself in a world far below New York City where humans must coexist and survive in a land with giant rats, cockroaches, spiders, bats and more. *

Candace finds a letter that inspires her and her friend, Brandon, to continue the treasure hunt that her grandmother had started years before and right a racial injustice from the town's past.

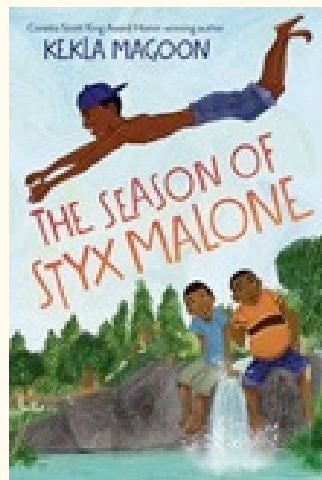

Set in the future, Eva Nine's underground home is destroyed and she must head to the surface and face all sorts of dangers and adventures. Is she the last human?*

Will ends up as an apprentice to a Ranger, the corps that protects the kingdom through stealth and skills. Evil threatens the kingdom, so Will gets involved. *

Danny is an avid basketball player, but doesn't make the 7th-grade team because he is short. His father, an ex-NBA star, decides to start a youth team for the kids who were cut.

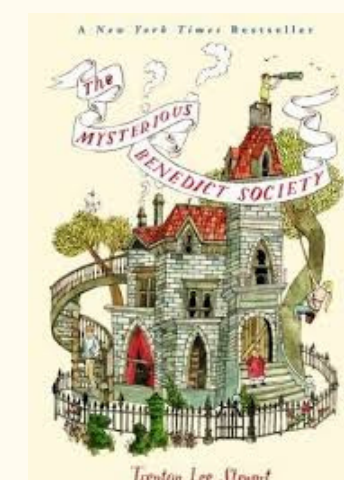

Caleb and his big brother, Bobby Gene, spend a memorable summer with their new neighbor, Styx Malone, an older foster boy from the city.

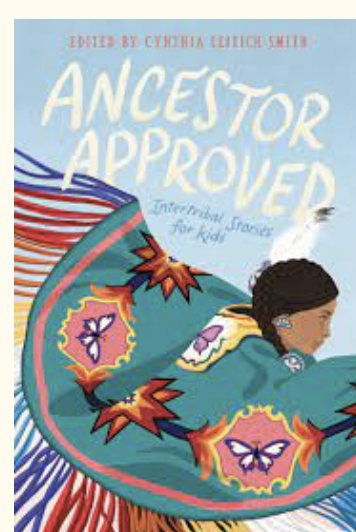

Kidnappings, spell casting, Brownies, boggarts, dastardly villains and wizards add lively scenery and action throughout this magyk-filled adventure. *

Auggie was born with severe facial disfigurement and has always been home-schooled. About to enroll in a school, he must deal with stares and comments as he tries to fit in.*

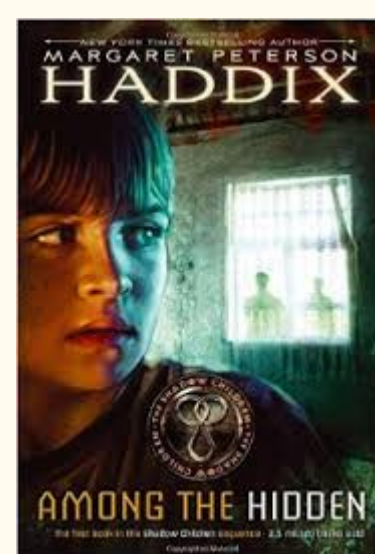

After passing a series of tests, four children are selected for a secret mission that requires them to go undercover at a place where the only rule is that there are no rules.*

This collection of intersecting stories by Native writers bursts with hope, joy, resilience, the strength of community, and Native pride.

Strange seeds show up and sprout into Venus flytrap-like pods that swallow animals and people. Three kids on a remote island seem immune to the toxic plants. Can they stop this invasion?

Set in the future, families are only allowed to have 2 children. Luke, as a third child, is constantly in hiding...until he sees another Third.*

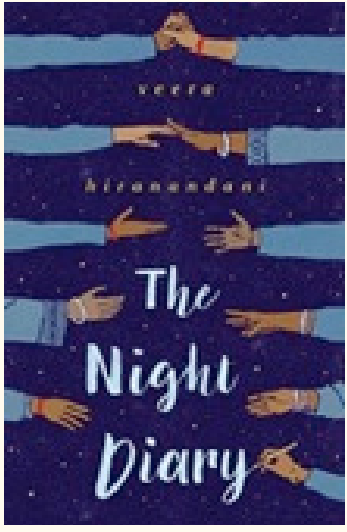

Ghost, a talented runner and troublemaker, is recruited for an elite track team, but he has to stay on track, both literally and figuratively.*

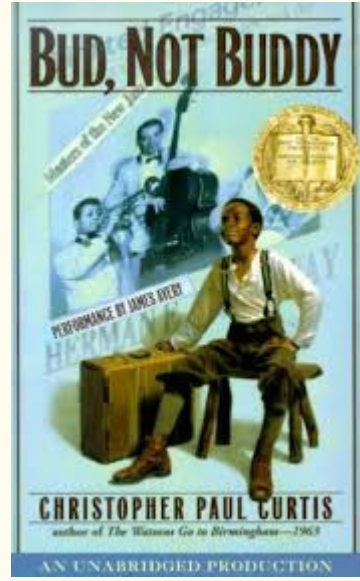

Isabella, who is biracial, never feels whole, especially as racial tensions affect her school and her divorced parents both become engaged.
