DEDICATION

The Class of 1966 takes great pride in dedicating its Class Record to its Headmaster, Dr. John Flagg Gummere. Through all of our years at Penn Charter, he has been hard at work bettering our education in many ways. His term as headmaster has seen new buildings, new laboratory facilities, new teaching methods and even Latin books, by which we of the student body have benefitted.

Also, Dr. Gummere has, through the N.A.I.S., been hard at work bettering the Independent schools throughout the nation. He has been awarded outside commendations for his accomplishments, and we feel that it is time that the Penn Charter students express their appreciation for all that he has done. We do this now, in hopes that all will look and see what an honor it is to have such a truly great man as our Headmaster.

Class Advisor

The Class of 1966 wishes to thank Mr. Jonathan M. Steere, Jr. for being the fine adviser that he has been. As is Mr. Steere's custom, he let the class run itself, giving only helpful advice at the most appropriate times. Through all four years of high school, the class ran smoothly under his direction and guidance, and we will all be the better for it. No matter how busy, Mr. Steere has always found time to help any member of our class in any problem. He has been devoted to us as a class and as individuals. For all of this, we thank him from the bottom of our hearts.

ACTIVITIES

P. C. CLASS RECORD

On Stairs: McLean, Kirchner, Helmetag, Pitman, Lom, Hill, Linton, Bonnie, Hays, Kurtz, DiMarco, Gabel, Bates, Hanlon, Sirlin, Over, Lichtenstein, Ort, Joseph, Seder, Gimpel. Top Row: Fischer, Dasent, Hargreaves, Schnabel, O'Neill, Ort, John, Harrity, Dickson, Slack, Grotzinger, Gibbs, Mr. Owrid. Kneeling: Noveau, Marian, Hanna, Kennedy, Kawano, Holmes.

All the activities at Penn Charter are important, but the one demanding the most team effort is the Class Record. Chronicling an entire year at high school is an enormous, year-long effort. Night meetings, week-end meeting, long hours of hard work became routine to the boys on the staff, all of whom did their best in bringing out this yearbook.

Of course the editors had the heaviest burdens, but again there were no complaints. The fun we had writing this yearbook is ample compensation for the work.

We all believe that this Class Record is the best ever, and we hope that you will enjoy reading it as much as we did writing it.

Editor-in-Chief—Robert A. Hanna

Business Manager—Michael J. Kennedy

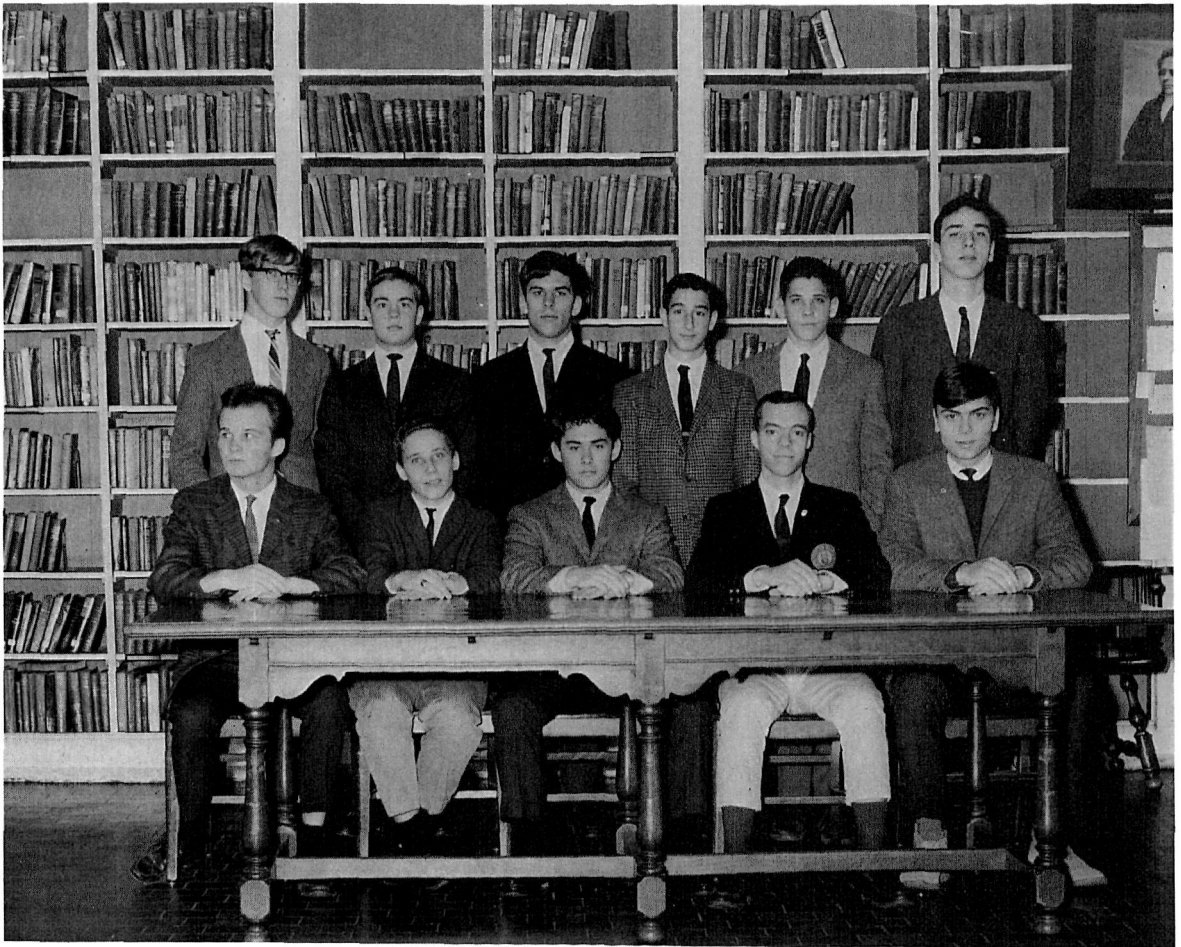

Literary Editor—Alan P. Marian

Photography Editor—Arnold H. Kawano

Art Editor—Richard W. Holmes, Jr.

Copy Editor—Donald A. Noveau

AFFILIATION COMMITTEE

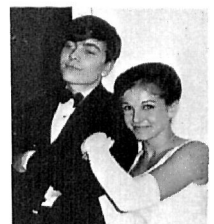

Standing: Braxton, Smith, Conrad, Rosenau, Ross, Wessell. Seated: Kennedy, Partenheimer, Westberg, Rogers, Ulrich.

This year, the Affiliation Committee has continued its important work in the field of student exchanges. The "Summer in France" program is run by the Committee, as well as our exchange with our sister school in Germany, Martino-Katherienum. Tony Rogers and Greg Luckman spent their junior years there, while this year's exchange student is Mark Hankin, class of '67. Monthly meetings and annual conferences keep the boys aware of the exchange possibilities.

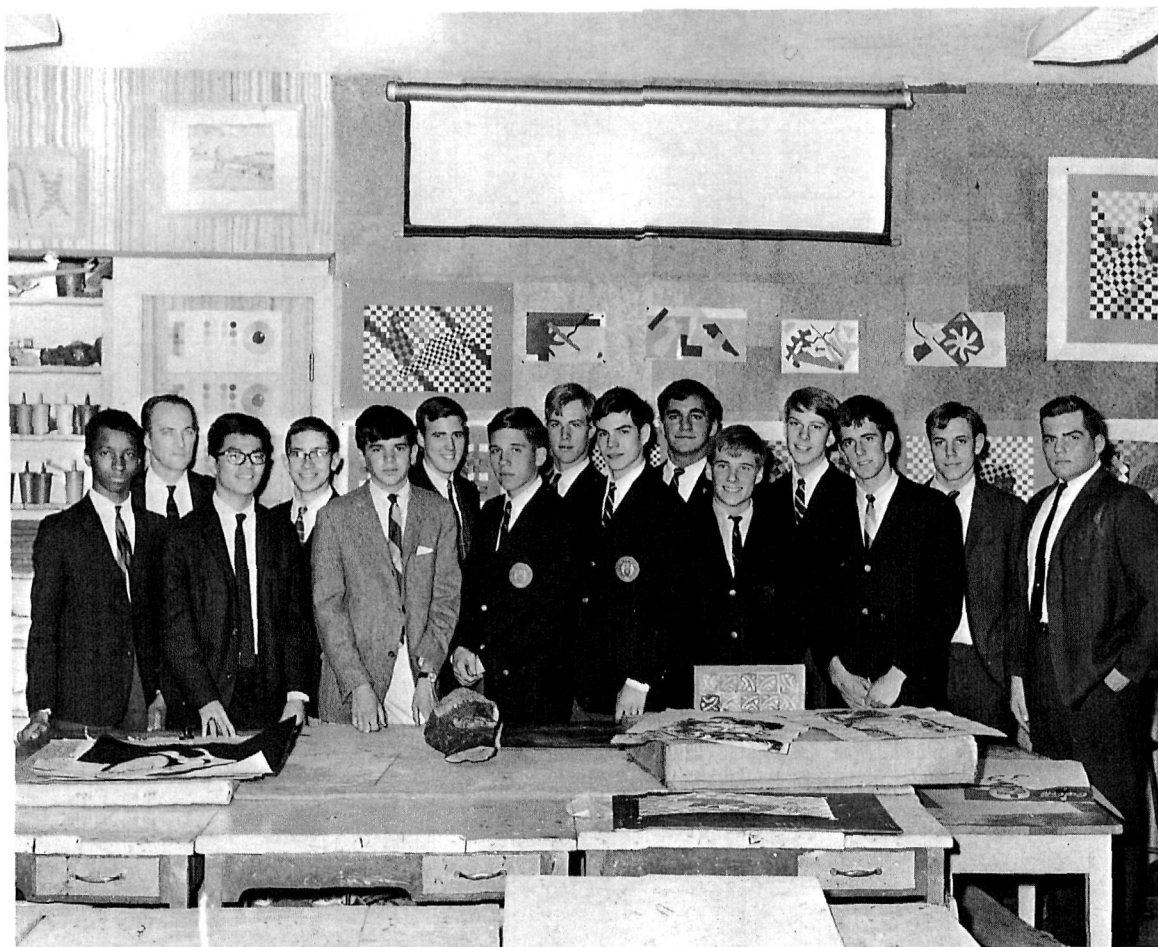

President—Peter Z. Westberg

Faculty Adviser—Wilmot R. Jones

"Let's affiliate."

ART SOCIETY

Dasent, Mr. Nuse, Kawano, Ort, Laub, Hays, Linton, Over, Hanlon, Schnabel, Muldoon, Cushmore, Miller, Buckley, Myers.

The Art Society was formed to bring together aesthetically minded students at Penn Charter, and to encourage their expression by way of the arts. Led by the enthusiastic Eric Lee, the Art Society took part in many activities, including helping Mr. Olson build sets for the major spring play. The boys also painted the area around the display window of the Biology Lab. The highlight of the year was the trip to New York and its interesting museums. As usual, Mr. Nuse gave excellent guidance to the boys.

President—Eric L. A. Lee

Secretary—John F. Laub

Faculty Adviser—Oliver W. Nuse

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

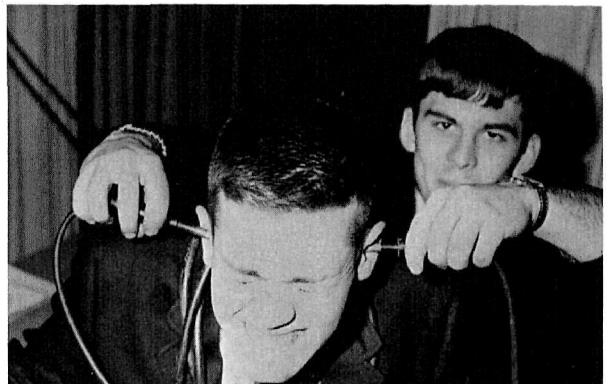

Standing: Kellner, Dickhart, Seder, Carnwath, Jones, Kurtz, Wilson. Seated: Gibbs, Luckman, Mann, Conrad, Pasternick. Kneeling: Kennedy, Fischer.

The Assembly Committee, a newly formed group, has had the difficult task of planning the weekly assemblies at Penn Charter. Mr. Olson is the adviser, and he usually has had his hands full setting up a schedule for speakers and events. He has been helped tremendously in his tasks by Mike Kennedy and his cohorts this year.

Some memorable assemblies included debates, singing concerts, Bell Telephone demonstrations, foreign speakers, travel slides from Viet Nam and other places and other interesting topics.

President—Michael J. Kennedy
Secretary—Craig H. Fischer
Faculty Adviser—Mr. Olson

CHESS CLUB

Standing: Partenheimer, Schneider, Whitman, Gloninger, Sirlin, Crooks, Mr. Owrid. Seated: Lightfoot, Luckman, Schnabel.

This relatively new society was begun a few years ago by a small number of chess fanatics, and has grown from a laughing stock to a respectable group of interested boys. Competition is fierce in school, and at the new "away games" at other schools.

President—Richard V. Schnabel

Faculty Adviser—Edwin W. Owrid

"Quick, Jon, while Rich isn't looking."

CUM LAUDE SOCIETY

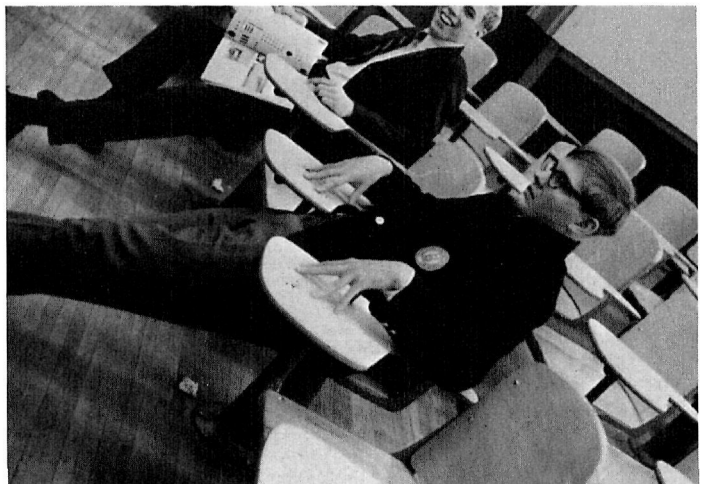

Braxton, Kawano, Carnwath, Ort, Luckman, Mr. Steere

The Cum Laude Society gives recognition to boys who, in their four years of high school work, have achieved excellent records. It is the highest recognition the school can give. Each year, several juniors are admitted and the following year qualified seniors become members. Thus it becomes something to work for throughout high school.

The society also holds a yearly banquet at which the new members are honored for their achievements.

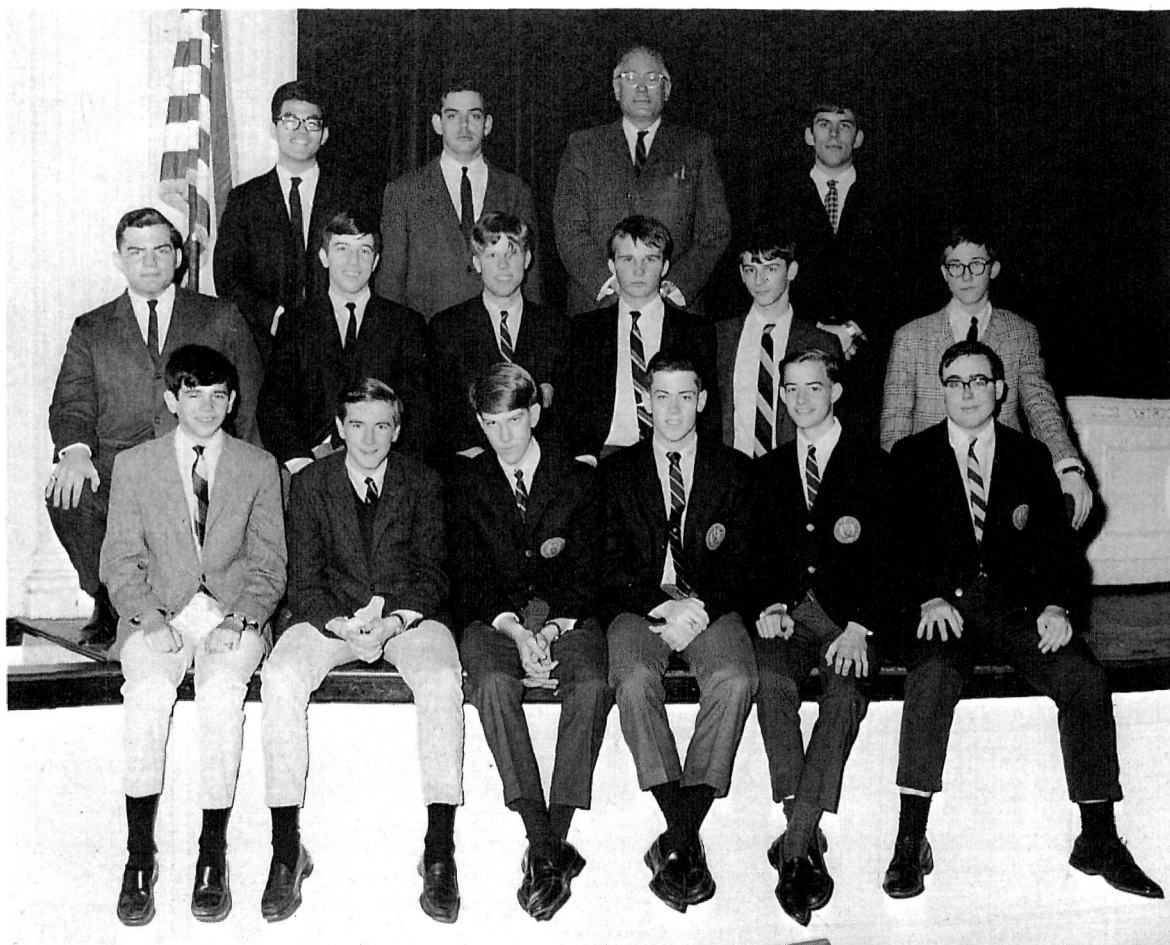

President—Peter H. Reinke

Secretary—Johnathan M. Steere, Jr.

"Uhhhhhhhhh ..."

DRAMATIC CLUB

Standing: Kawano, Mr. Allen, Mr. Shakespeare, Conrad. Kneeling: Myers, Jones, Hedges, Kennedy, Leopold, O'Neill. Sitting: Laub, Armour, Cushmore, Wilson, White, Byers.

This club provides experience for boys in the field of stage productions. To gain membership, a boy must earn seven points in various stage jobs: acting, design, lighting, staging, and financing. The boys are also encouraged to attend important stage productions, as well as to put on their own productions. This year, the big play was Sheridan's The Rivals, a rousing English comedy. Besides the big play, one-act shows were given in assembly: another of Sholom Aleichem's works, Feathertop, and Albee's Zoo Story.

President—John M. Wilson

Secretary—John G. White

Business Manager—Wayne T. Cushmore

Faculty Adviser—Edward O. Shakespeare

HISTORY CLUB

This year's membership of forty-one boys gave the History Club its largest group in its seven year existence. The group met at night meetings to hear lectures and see films obtained by the faculty adviser, Mr. Weigand. Two of the most interesting sessions were Mr. Owrid's lecture on the Battle of Blenheim, and the film, Communist Brainwashing.

The Club took one trip this year to Independence Hall and the surrounding historical spots in Philadelphia. By discussing the past, the boys receive insight into the present and the future.

President—Stephen C. Johnston
 Vice-President—N. Doak Grauer
 Secretary—Stephen V. Gibbs
 Treasurer—W. Tonner Hays
 Faculty Adviser—George B. Weigand

LIBRARY SOCIETY

The Library Society is composed of boys in the Middle and Upper Schools who are eager to learn the basic details of running a library. They catalogue books, arrange them, make repairs, and make themselves generally useful to Mr. Owrid. The boys also take charge of the library when Mr. Owrid steps out.

Besides the routine work at school, there is a trip to a place of literary interest every year.

Presidents—Edgar W. Schneider, Jr.
Roy L. Cameron, III

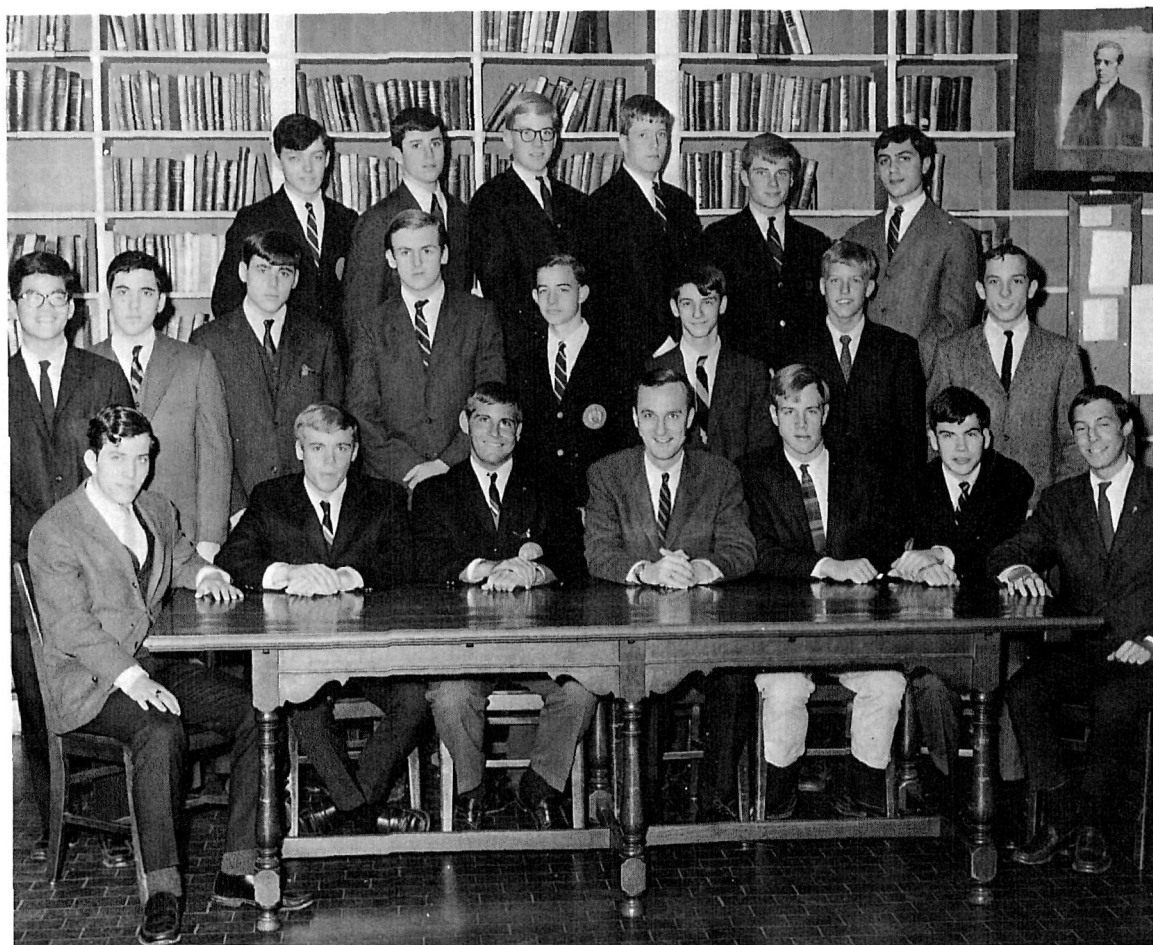

Secretaries—Scott H. Kirchner
Arthur T. Waltz

Faculty Adviser—Edwin W. Owrid

"Mr. Owrid thinks I'm working."

The Literary Society is one of the oldest groups at Penn Charter. The Society is devoted to the reading and discussion of major writings, ranging from serious books to works by club members. The boys also attend locally given plays, and follow up their attendance by lively discussions.

Besides studying literature, the boys sponsor the autumn Literary Society Dance, which is always a worthwhile event.

President—Richard K. Carnwath

Vice-President—David M. Waelder

Faculty Adviser—Peter H. Reinke

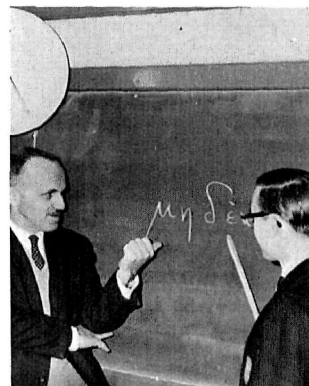

GREEK SOCIETY

Standing: Mr. Kempner, Cushmore, Steere, Oxtoby, McAdoo, Kirchner, S., Wheeler, Kurtz, Pasterchik, Blumenthal.
Seated: Hays, Ort, John, Kirchner, B., Kennedy. Kneeling: Markovitz, Smith, Conrad.

Eight years ago, the Greek Society was started by a few students who had taken Greek under Mr. Alexander and Latin under Mr. Kempner. Today, the society is a philosophical discussion group which studies the culture, people, and influence of ancient Greece. In addition, the boys get to read great works of Greek literature and philosophy.

President—Bruce M. Kirchner
 Secretary—John T. Ort
 Faculty Adviser—Frederick F. Kempner

"It's Greek to me, Bruce."

PENN CHARTER MAGAZINE

Standing: Seder, Waelder, Cushmore, Richman, Wilson, Hammer, White, Ward. Seated: Mr. Arms, Leopold, Carnwath, Linton, Hanlon, Kurtz, Mann.

The Penn Charter Magazine is the oldest schoolboy publication in America, and this year's staff kept up the tradition. Unfortunately, the staff had to write too much because of unusually reticent students not contributing anything.

The magazine is the medium literary expression for the student body. It prints prose (fiction and non-fiction), poetry, and art, and generally encourages, the free expression of the students in writing.

With the same determined spirit (and a few more contributions) the P.C. Magazine will continue to be a source of pride to the entire school.

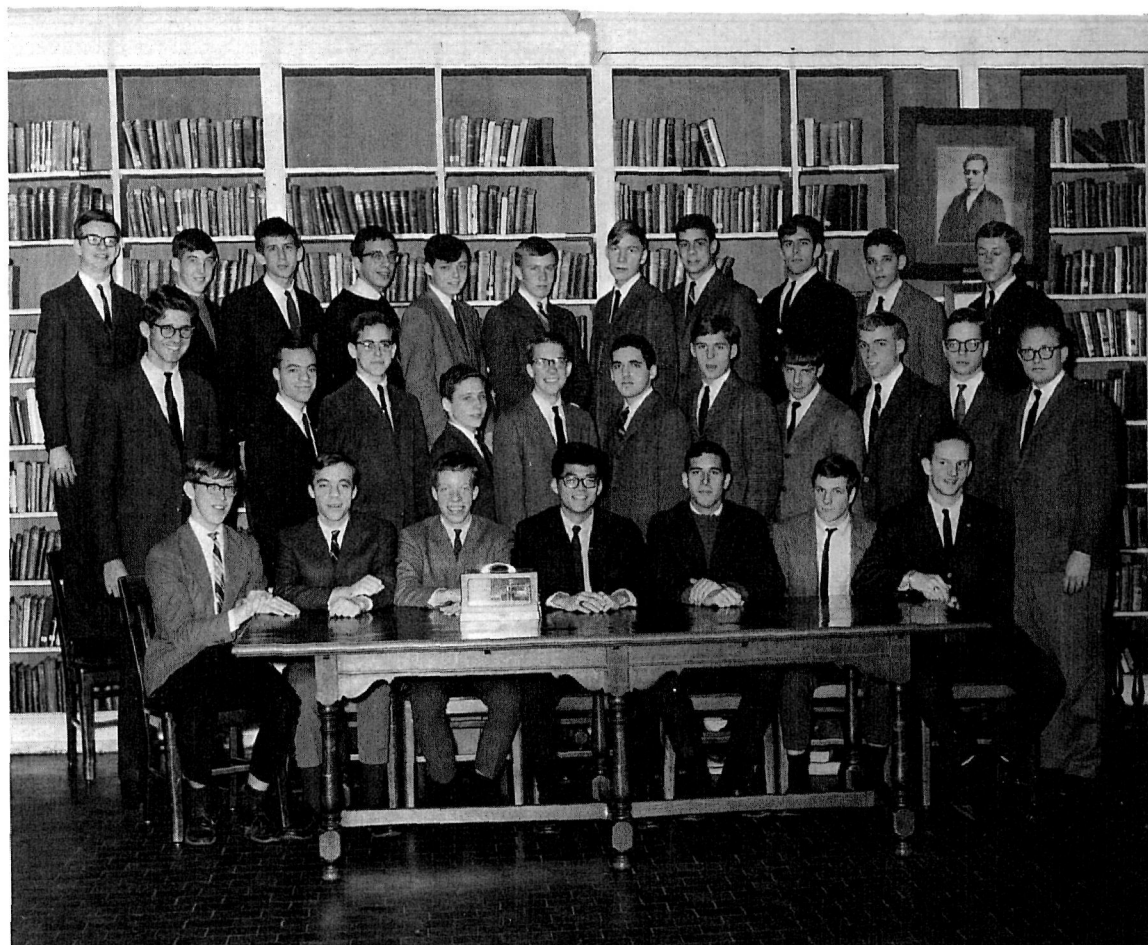

Editor-in-Chief—Peter S. Linton

Faculty Adviser—Myron A. Arms

"This'll make a good one!"

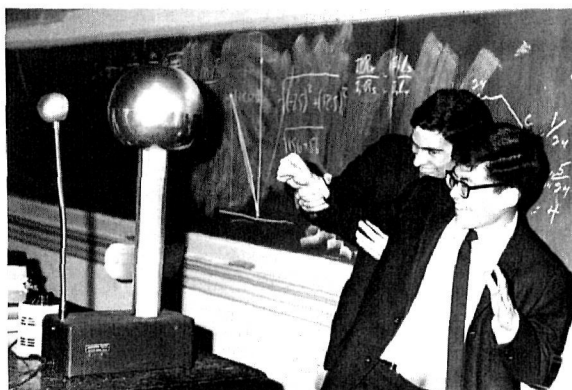

SCIENCE CLUB

Top Row: Pasterchik, Wilson, Eckfeldt, Cherry, Kingsberry, Haley, Gimpel, Greco, Conrad, Ross, Brenner. Second Row: Mr. Tatnall, Rogers, A., Scott, Partenheimer, Oxtoby, Kurtz, Gabel, McLean, Helmetag, Stretch, Mr. Edgerton. Seated: Braxton, Rogers, J., Fischer, Kawano, Pitman, Baird, Gibbs.

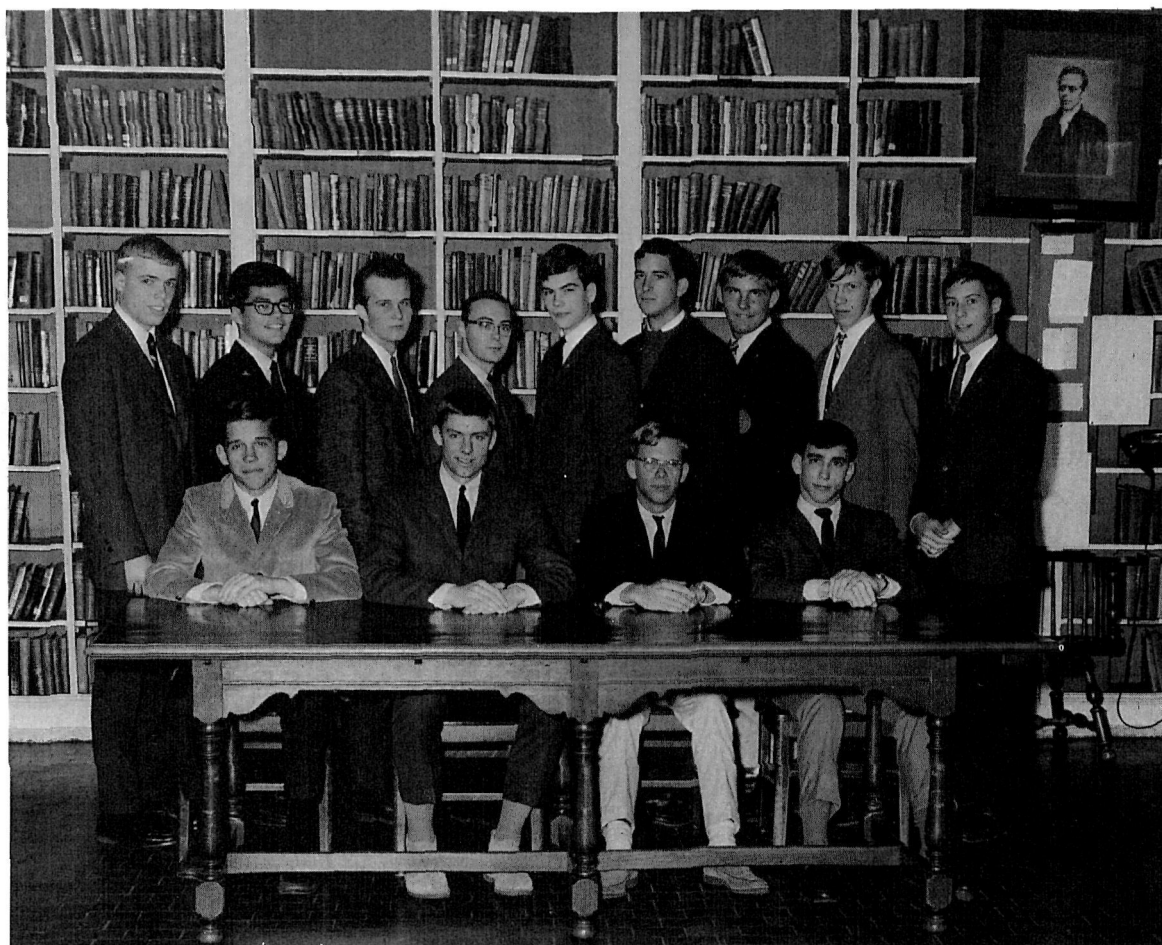

The Science Club gives seriously interested students a chance to experiment in, and learn more about the field of science. This year's membership was the largest in many years.

The club saw several films on the effects and uses of atomic energy, in addition to the usual lectures and demonstrations held at its meetings. The Science Club was invited to Bethlehem Steel Company to visit its extensive laboratory facilities. Of course, the boys prepared busily for the annual Science Fair in March, with hopes to continue local and perhaps national Fairs.

"Just pretend it's the Rat, see?"

TRIDENT SOCIETY

Standing: Helmetag, Kawano, Kennedy, Kirchner, Hanlon, Pitman, Carnwath, Braxton, Mann. Seated: Linton, Steere, Hanna, Seder.

The Trident Society consists of boys who have achieved good records academically and who are active in extracurricular activities. The prospective members are selected by a student-faculty ballot, and then the final choices are made by the members themselves.

The Trident Society makes several contributions to the school. Each year it awards a plaque to outstanding underclassmen who show the qualities of merit, character, and congeniality. The Society also provides for a scholarship fund and at Commencement presents a plaque to the senior who it believes has done the most for his school.

The Trident also sponsors the sole formal dance at school, held every winter. This year, Trident member Robert Hanna and his group "The Invictus" played at the Trident dance and were a tremendous success.

President—Allen F. Steere

Secretary—Peter S. Linton

Vice-President—Robert A. Hanna

Treasurer—Jeffrey A. Seder

Faculty Adviser—W. Raymond Evans

VARSITY CLUB

Top Step: Over, Gabel, Russell, Steere, Slack, Scheid, Harry, Hanna. Lower Step: Seder, DiStefano, Harrity, Schenkel, Linton, Kirchner.

The Varsity Club gives recognition to boys who have performed well in school athletics. Boys must have at least two varsity letters to be eligible for membership. These members are expected to show ability and sportsmanship on the field.

Varsity Club members also take charge of "school spirit" by selling tags before games, cheerleading, and running pep rallies.

The Varsity Club is also famous for its springtime fling, appropriately titled the Varsity Club Dance. It is always a wild affair, as this year's dance was, when the boys cut loose in their last month of school.

President—William H. Scheid, Jr.

Secretary—Robert A. Hanna

Faculty Adviser—Joseph S. Perrott

WEBSTER SOCIETY

The Webster Debating Society gives qualified students a chance to learn formal debating and public speaking. Membership is limited so that each boy can debate several times a year. To enter the society, candidates prepare and deliver a short speech which is judged by the members, making entrance competitive.

The boys debate on topics of interest in assembly and at night meetings. The highlight of the year is the annual Valley Forge competition with teams from many other schools.

President—Jeffrey A. Seder

Vice-President—Fredric R. Mann, II

Secretary—Richard K. Carnwath

Faculty Adviser—Edwin W. Owrid

WHEEL CLUB

Top Row: Allen, Sellers, Buckley, Dickson, Ortlieb, Buek, Hargreaves, DiMarco, Harry, Schenkel, Mr. Minault, Scheid, Slack, Grauer, Miller, Still, Kneeland. Kneeling: Cardone, Noveau, Jones, McLean, Gabel, Muldoon, DiStefano, Long, Harrity, Russell.

The Wheel Club is a relatively new society at school. It is composed of boys who are mechanically inclined and who know what's happening when it comes to automobiles.

The members watch the parking lot, and help out each other's automotive difficulties. Besides this, they perform a service by aiding distressed motorists in the local area.

President—Frederick W. Slack, III

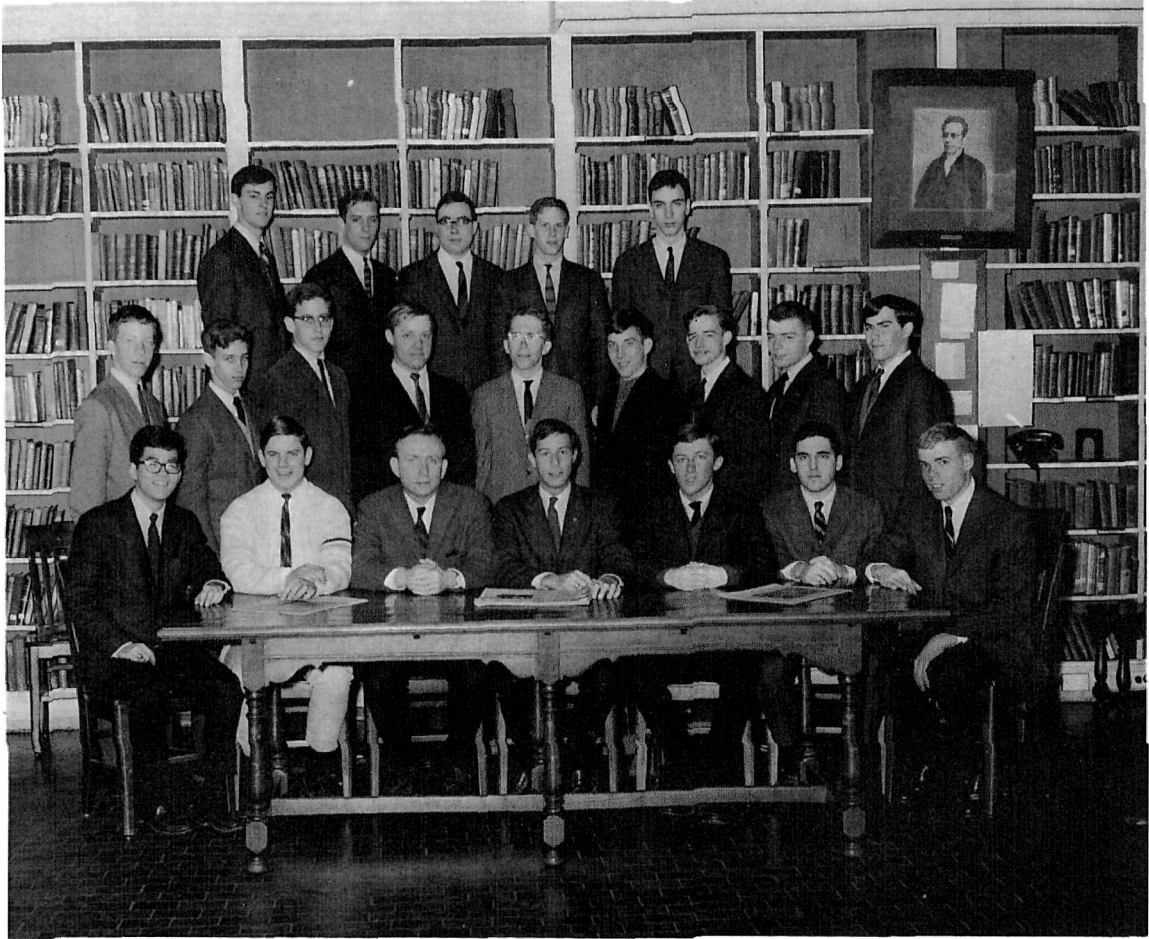

Secretary—Barry W. Hargreaves

Faculty Adviser—Paul A. Minault

WOODROW WILSON SOCIETY

This year the Wilson Society was in its third year of existence at Penn Charter. The purpose of this club is to study current affairs and problems, both foreign and domestic. This year the society sponsored several assemblies in which guest speakers addressed the school. Most interesting were the speakers from Iraq and Nigeria.

Besides taking part in the World Affairs Council functions, the boys participated in the Model United Nations Assembly in which P. C. represented Laos. They also held discussions of events such as the U.N. and the French elections.

President—Fredric R. Mann, II

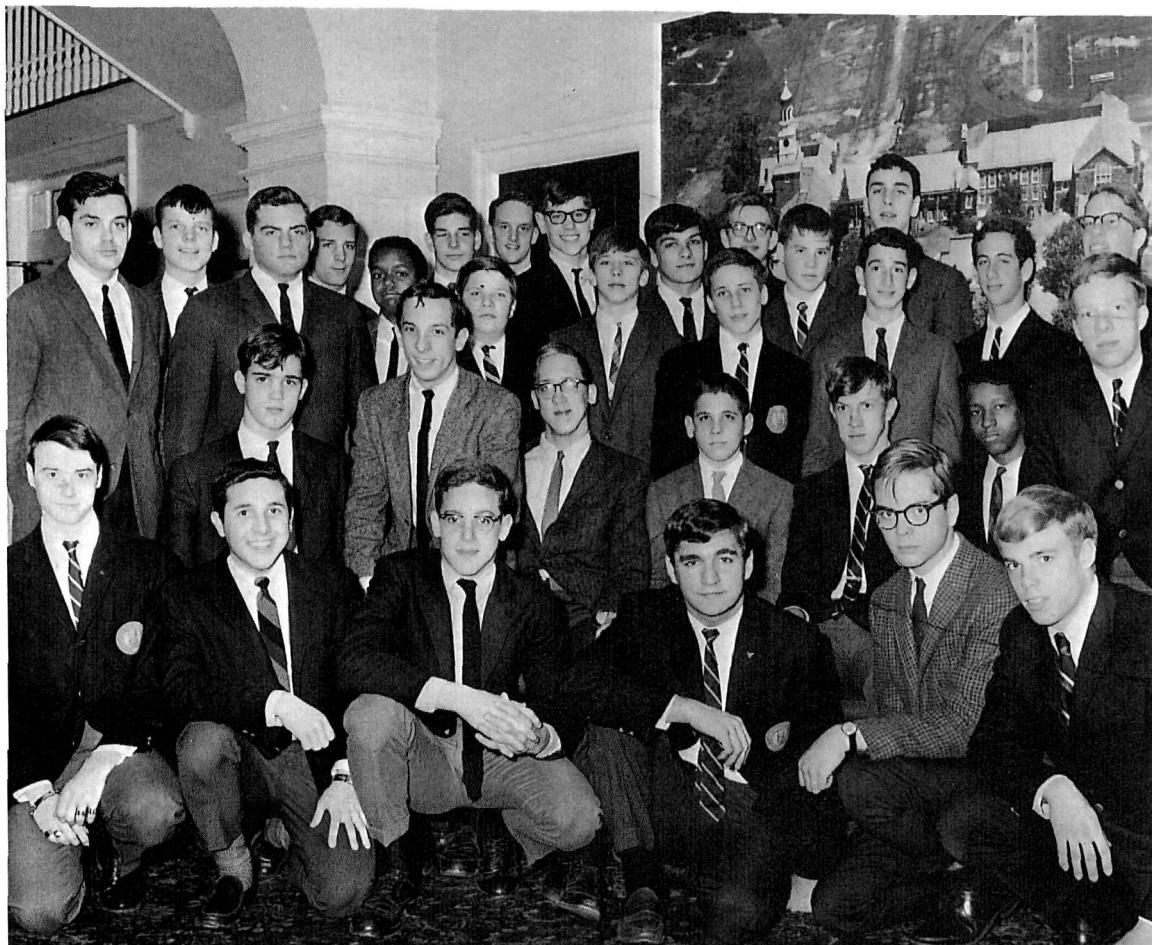

Secretary—Robert R. Brenner

Faculty Adviser—William A. Nesbitt

PENN CHARTER MIRROR

Top Row: Mr. Allen, Kellner, Myers, Nicholson, Dasent, A., Dickhart, McLean, Gibbs, Slotter, Fiechter, Saleeby, Partenheimer, Pasterchik, Lane, Rosenau, Wessell, Merves, Oxtoby. Seated: Gloninger, Bonnie, Schneider, Ross, Braxton, Dasent, O., Fischer. Kneeling: Marian, Sirlin, Scott, Schnabel, Stretch, Helmetag.

In attempting to "hold up a mirror to the Penn Charter community", the Mirror has had a vast success. The idea of a school newspaper was developed several years ago and it was in 1964 when the first issue was written up. All of the seniors and most of the underclassmen on the staff have been with the paper since its beginning.

The Mirror provides journalistic experience for students, reporters and editors. In no way is the Mirror a rival to the P. C. Magazine, but rather a supplement to it. The Mirror voices student opinion through editorials and columns, besides featuring humor, interviews, and news of school interest.

The Mirror has progressed from a mimeographed sheet to a printed format complete with pictures. This newspaper has become a vital part of the awareness of the Penn Charter student.

Editor-in-Chief—John W. Braxton

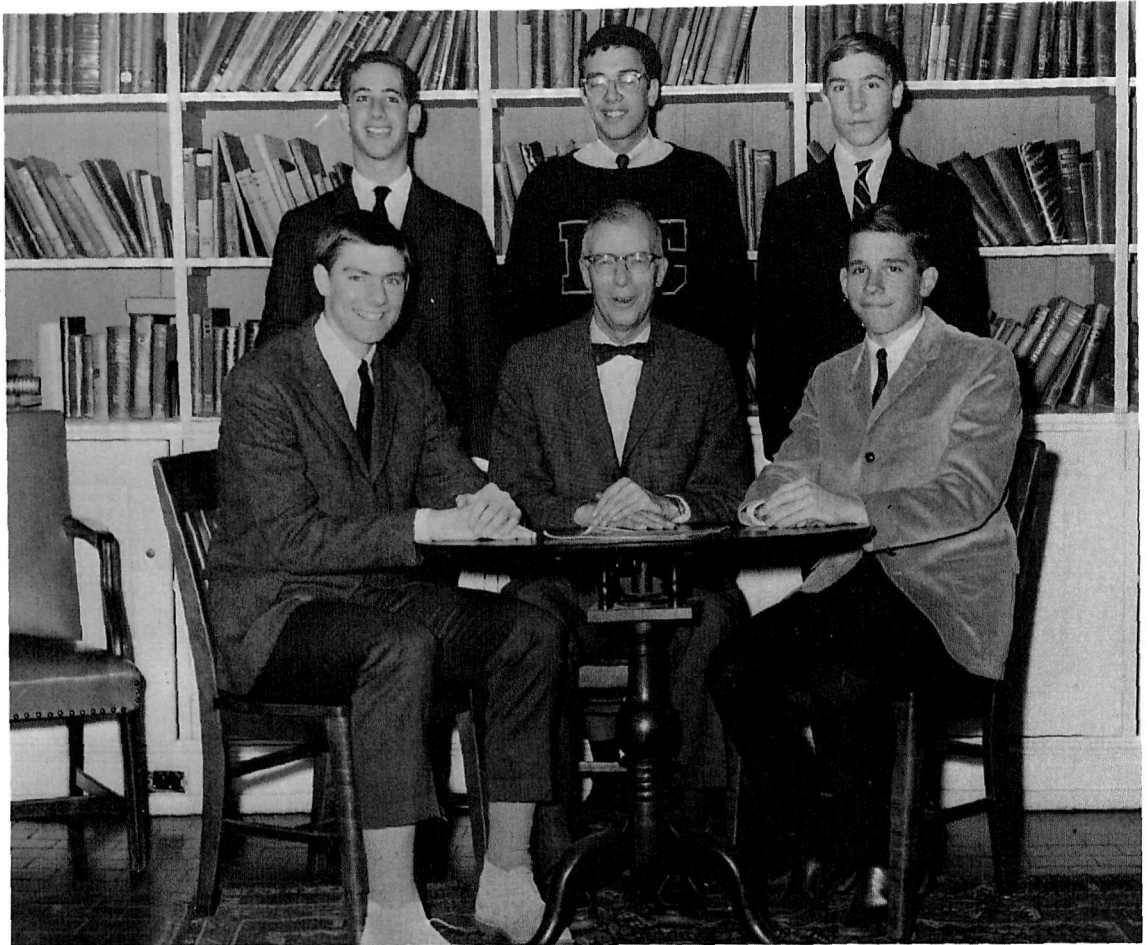

Assistant Editor—Edgar W. Schneider Jr.

Faculty Adviser—Ralph W. Allen

PENN CHARTER NEWS

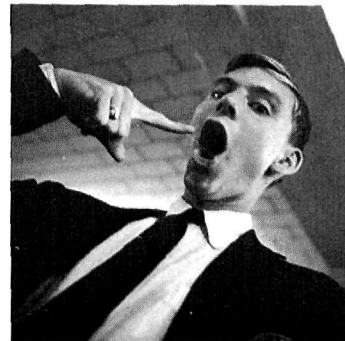

Standing: Merves, Cherry, Oxtoby. Seated: Steere, Mr. Steere, Linton.

The Penn Charter News is a vital part of the school. It is a joint publication of the students, the community, and the faculty: a real team effort. The paper is printed four times a year and sent to parents and graduates.

The P. C. News contains important announcements concerning activities and studies, faculty news, alumni news, athletic notices, and other articles. All members of the staff have their jobs, and a student staff helps prepare copy and proofreads.

SENIOR CHORUS

1st Row: Lee, Holmes, R., Wilson, M., Walsh, Green, Stevens, Kirchner, B., Mann, Noveau, Lom, White, Blanshard, McAdoo, Coon. 2nd Row: Fitch, Hill, Buckley, Gawthrop, Kneeland, Fischer, Cherry, Palaia, Still, Wilson, S., Marian, Braxton. 3rd Row: Schnabel, Haun, Hedges, Cushmore, McDowell, Haeussler, Skinner, J., Gloninger, Hopkinson, Hanlon, Ulrich, Rogers, A., Waltz, Steere, Carnwath.

Under the dedicated leadership of Mr. Ernest Wells, the Charter Singers and Quakers Dozen enjoyed another superb year, and people's comments have shown that all the rehearsing has paid off.

The annual Christmas concert at school opened the season for the singers and it was a ringing success. The Spring Concert, on the evening of April 22 was also well done. Other notable performances by the boys were the combined concerts with Girls' High School and the Stevens School.

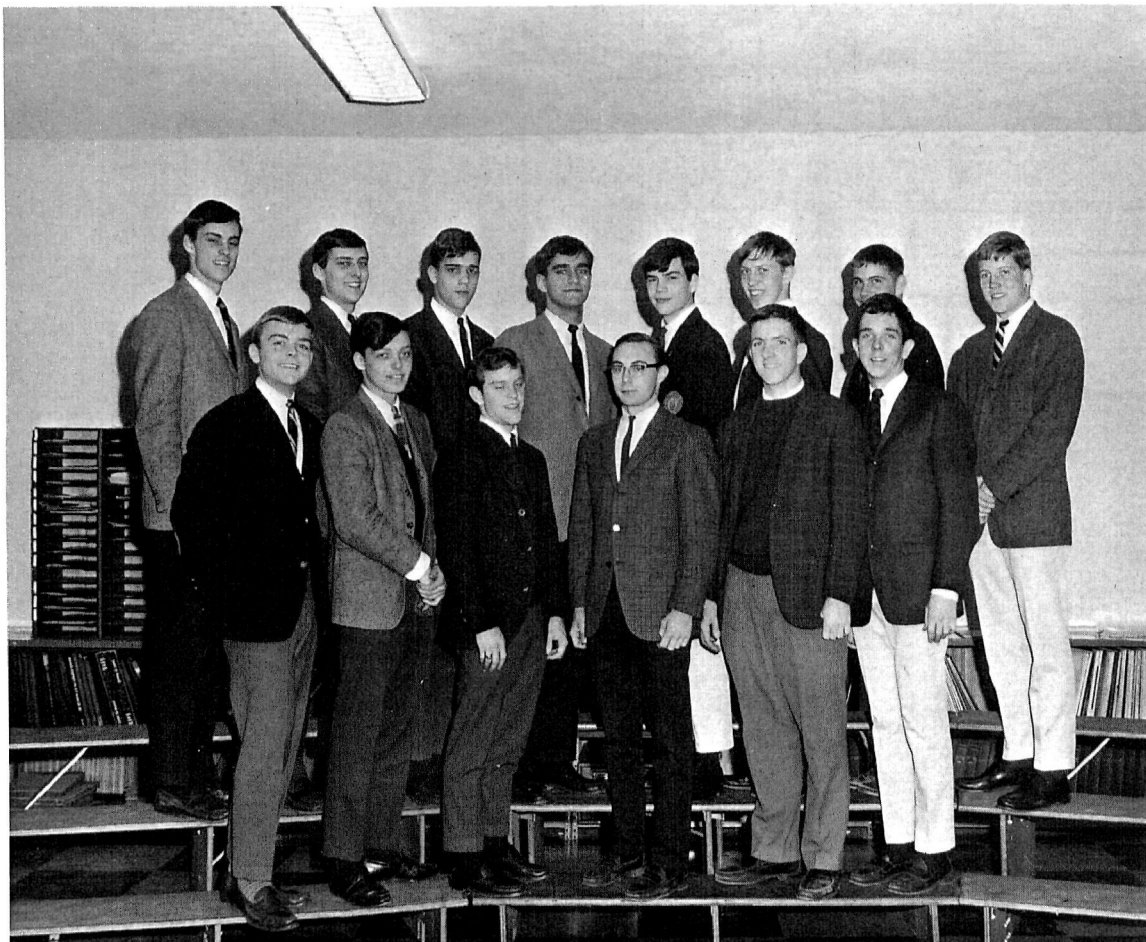

As usual the Quakers Dozen was well received at regular concerts and special performances throughout the year. All of the hard-working boys, and Mr. Wells, too, deserve everyone's praise.

Student Leader—Randal J. McDowell

Student Manager—John W. Braxton

The Penn Charter Community Government is made up of boys who are elected to office by their fellow students. These boys guide, advise, and, when needed, discipline the student body. The members are also expected to set a respectable example for all to follow.

Each week the Council meets to discuss matters of importance for the school. There is also a weekly homeroom report of the Council's decisions. The Council works with the Administration to consider worthwhile changes in school policy.

The Student Government is also responsible for maintaining the Penn Charter Honor System, a successful system of which boys here can be proud.

FOOTBALL

The beginning of a humid September cut short the vacation of approximately fifty candidates for the Penn Charter varsity football team. The first week separated the men from the boys, and the second week saw thirty-five men on the team. In a short time, under the coaching of Mr. Ray Dooney and led by the co-captains Marty Harrity and Bill Scheid, a talented, hard-nosed team had been formed.

The Quakers' first game was a stunning 21-0 victory over the ambitious Peddie School. The next week, P.C. trudged through the mud to a 13-0 victory over P.S.D.

The next two games were disastrous. Charter fell 7-14 before a powerful Valley Forge M.A. team, and the following week dropped a heart-breaker to Haverford, 7-27, despite a thrilling run by Paul Harrington in the first half.

Following the Haverford defeat, a new spirit was instilled in the team and they quickly knocked off Episcopal and Chestnut Hill. The high point of the season was the 33-7 pounding of Malvern Prep on their own ground. Marty Harrity led the team with three scores that day, despite an injured hand.

The final game of the season, against old rival Germantown Academy, proved the superiority of our team as they sprinted to a 20-0 win.

The 1965-66 Football team was one of the school's best and attained that standing by hard work and practice. They ask only one thing in return: that the next varsity team beats Haverford!

"Ooink!"

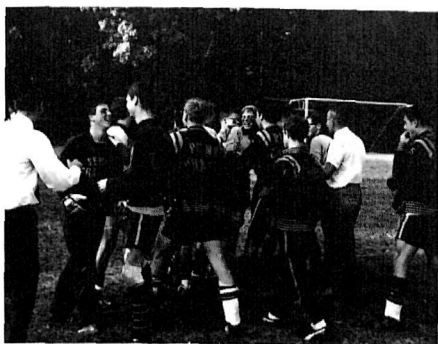

"It's just a scheid too big!"

SOCCER

As happens every fall, a bunch of guys down on that field in front of school practiced and played that game called soccer. Before the season started, it had been predicted, by rival teams, that Penn Charter would win the championship for 1965. P.C. returning lettermen were not so confident. With the exception of the ubiquitous Thomas Lom at goal, and Paul Greco (injured last season) at halfback, there was not a single returning defensive player. Consequently, Coach Conard had to fill in the defense with rookies. He moved Captain Allen "Thunder" Steere, one time inside, to center-half. From the physics lab, the Coach dug up Messrs. Salvia, Pitman and Braxton to give the halfback line a bit of culture.

"Guess What? We lost!"

"Whad-y-yuh mean? Soccer's better!"

Peter Westberg and John "Golden-toe" Skinner switched with Don Hanlon and Kurt Dengler for fullback spots, while Chuck Batés helped "Lomsky" at goalie. The team was filled out by the Orts and Warren Schmidt, who gave competition to Peter Linton, Derk "Lightning" Over, Steve "Goubaz" Bonnie and Friendly Freddy Gabel. The team was filled out by Jimmy "Stump" Stevens. Mr. Conard had the able Mr. Harrison to round out the coaching staff.

A winning season was heralded in by a victory over Olney (2-1), a competitor P.C. hadn't beaten for some time. After the boys brushed Malvern out of the way (3-1) and bruised Westtown (1-0), it had become apparent Mr. Conard and Mr. Harrison had developed a fine, short-pass team. The Interac league quaked. Then G.F.S. beat us (3-4). P.C. bounced back to take Episcopal (1-0).

After much work, the team defeated the Swarthmore College J. V. Team (4-2) in overtime. The game was an exciting and fine way to end the season.

All in all, this year's soccer team was a good one. Says Mr. Conard, "This is the first good short-pass team I have ever developed." Although the team did not fare so well in the league, the defeats of Olney, Westtown and Swarthmore made the season more than worthwhile.

"Off the toe, lady!!"

"I THOUGHT he was dead, Chick."

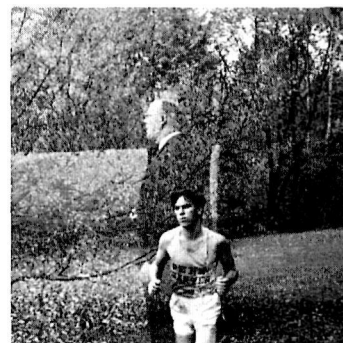

Top Row: Berlinger, Entwisle, Carnwath, Goodman, Crooks, Helmetag, Mr. Cornfield. Kneeling: Leopold, Cherry, Petrillo, Jones Cushmore, Hopkinson.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country is in its second year at Penn Charter with a larger and more enthusiastic team than last year's. Although the team lost a couple of good runners through graduation, the squad improved greatly under the tutelage of coach Richard Cornfield and Captain Chic Goodman.

The team got a rigorous workout every afternoon, Monday through Friday. When they ran at Walnut Lane, they ran anywhere from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 6 miles. In their meets, they ran from 2 to $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Captain Chic Goodman, Chip Helmetag, John Entwisle, Jamie Hopkinson, Jim Armour, Mike Cherry, and Dick Carnwath ran in the team's twelve scheduled meets. The team's 0 and 12 record was not indicative of the great improvement that they made during the course of the season.

"Big Brother is watching you."

Standing: Mr. Cornfield, McAdoo, Wheeler, Lee, Atkins, Grauer, Bishop. Kneeling: Hendricks, Cherken, Cherry, Markovitz.

SQUASH

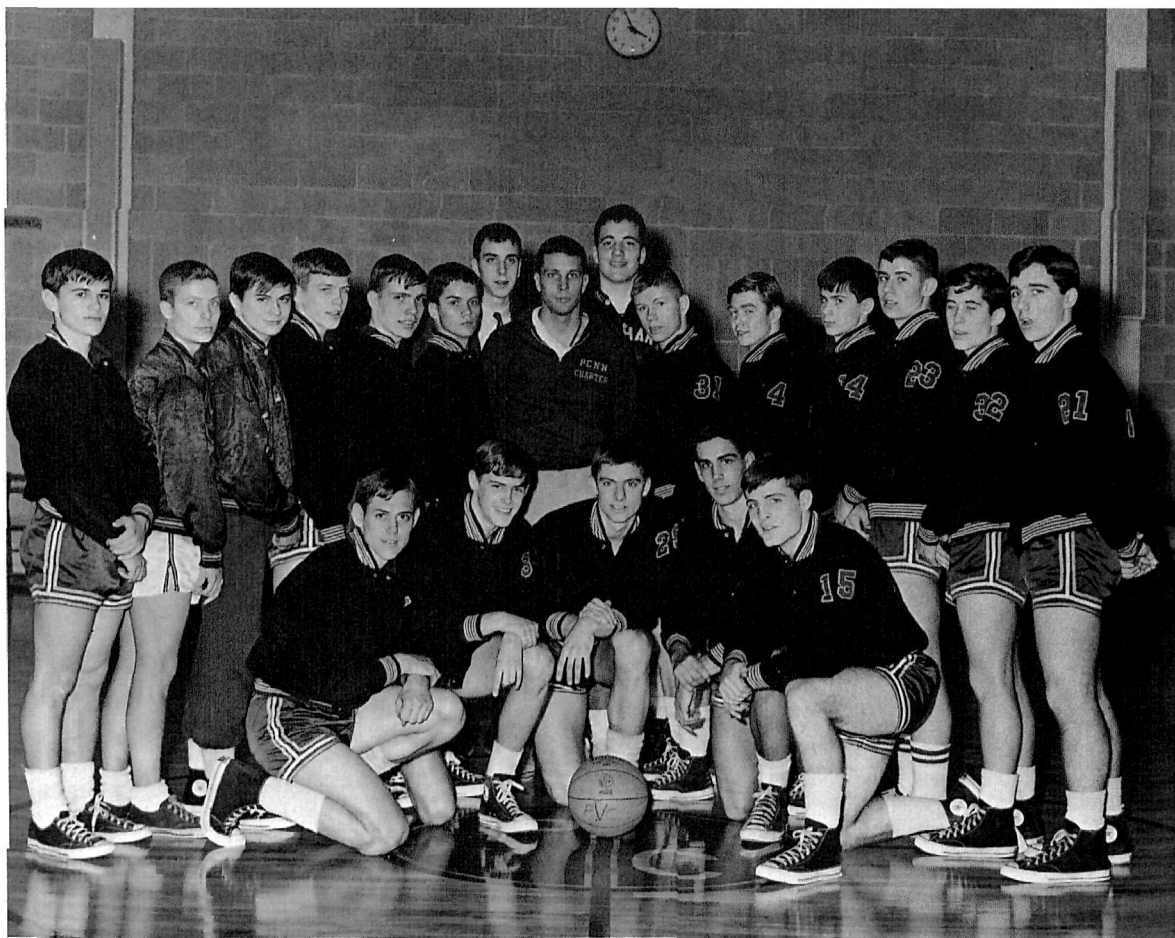

As the 1965-66 winter sports season opened, Penn Charter looked forward to a winning season in squash. Although the team was hurt by having five of its seven starters graduate, there are some veterans returning, notably Sandy McAdoo, Bert Wheeler, and Eric Lee.

The competition for varsity was fierce with boys moving up from the second team and J.V.'s to fill the gaps. This group of racqueteers consists of Mike Markovitz, Bob Hendricks, Doak Grauer, Brad Ward, Mike Cherry, Rod Atkins, John Kurtz, Steve Marshall, Harry Cherken, Joe Hoeffel, and Craig Huntingdon.

With a tight Interac schedule and college matches with Penn, Princeton, and St. Andrews, the team is striving for P.C.'s first squash title since 1929.

"Umph, glumph."

BASKETBALL

This was definitely a rebuilding year for the Penn Charter hoopsters. All of last year's varsity men graduated, except for Allen Steere, who was this year's Captain.

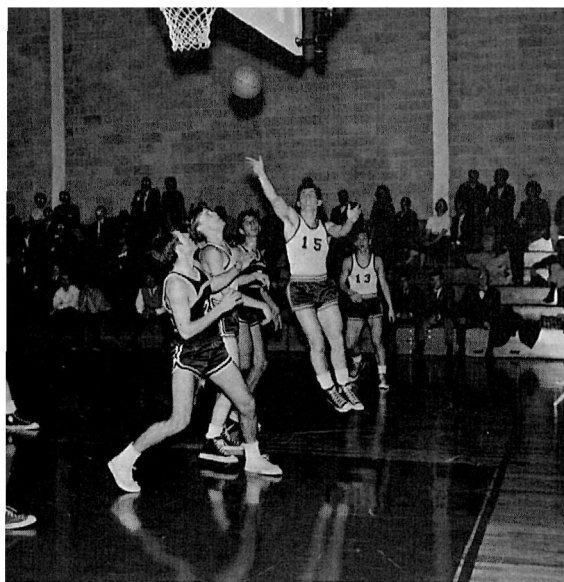

Through the opening weeks of the season, the team ran up a 2-13 record, (counting the alumni game, but the boys then began to run more smoothly.

This year, juniors and sophomores will develop for next year's varsity. Buckley, Harrington, Safrin and Still will be the core of next season's team, while the second team will provide a strong back-up force.

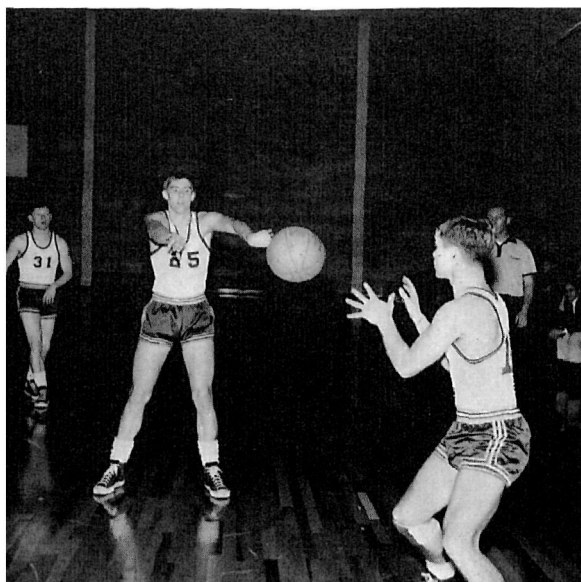

This year's team had hard luck, but a definite improvement was seen by the end of the season. We wish the next team, under Coach Weigand, the very best of luck.

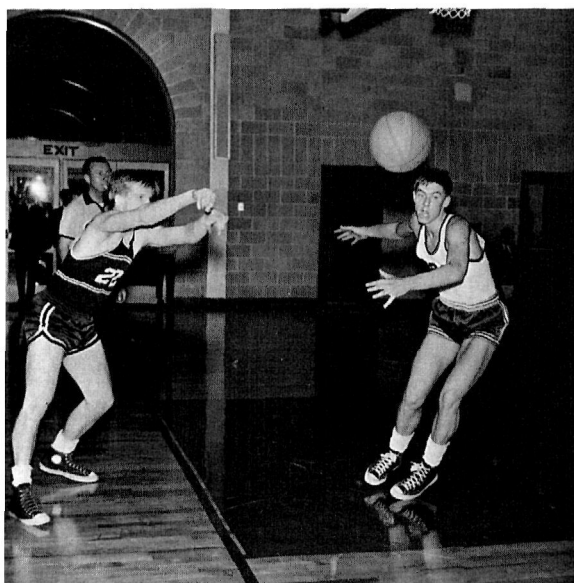

"Just pretend you're Custer."

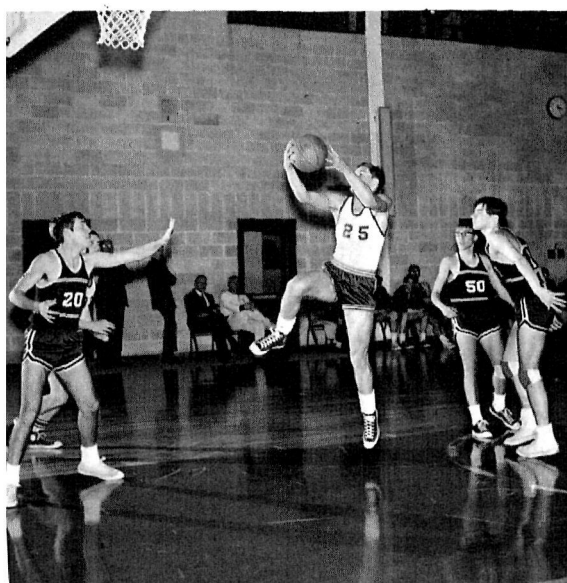

"Take that!!!"

"Take that, Junior."

"Oooooopps!!"

Steere goes up ...

WRESTLING

This year's Wrestling team showed good potential, in spite of graduations of last year's men—Palmer, Cook, Zimmer, and DeLong.

The best experience on the team is provided by co-captains Jeff Seder and Bruce Kirchner. Both boys are fine wrestlers and provided the needed leadership. Fred Eckfeldt, up from the second team, helped out in the 145-pound weight spot.

Neil Smith and Dave Icenhower showed excellent form in non-league matches, and next year they will be in Interac competition. Dave Icenhower pleased the Editor greatly when he pinned his man from Bryn Athyn Academy in the first period.

Coaches Phil Maroney and Mike Hanna are eager to beat old rival Haverford next year, and we know that they will do it.

The captains disagree

SWIMMING

This year was the first time Penn Charter used its new swimming pool in league competition. Having the new facilities gave the team a boost, too. Captain Chip Hill hoped to take the championship away from Malvern.

The team had good prospects of winning this season. The new coach, Mr. Gibson, was fortunate in having a large group of returning swimmers from last season. These include Chip Hill, Harvey Buck, Griff Affel, Jack Muldoon, Tom Eiman, and Rich Balderston.

With this determined group, Penn Charter should become the unbeatable team of the Interac League.

Top Row: Fischer, McAdoo, Harrity, DiStefano, Mr. McMillan. Kneeling: Buckley, Scheid, Linton, Still, Harrington, Russell.

BASEBALL

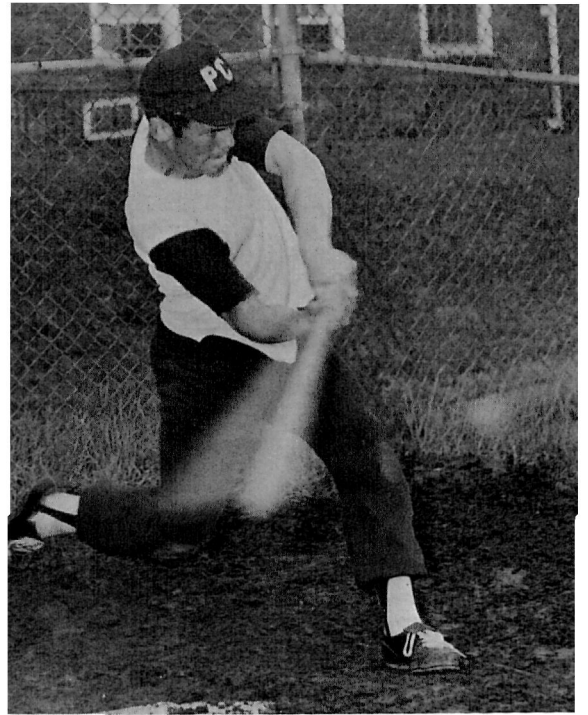

On the basis of past performances, this year's Penn Charter varsity baseball team should once again be Interac champions. Our school has one of the finest records in the city, and new coach Mr. McMillan is preparing for a tight season.

This year's team has lots of potential with players like Captain Bill Scheid, Marty Harrity, Steve DiStefano, Pete Linton and Steve Russell. Juniors like Still, Harrington and Buckley will be around next year, too.

Without making predictions too early in the season, the varsity squad this year is a determined, talented group. Mr. McMillan is anxious to take P.C. to another league title.

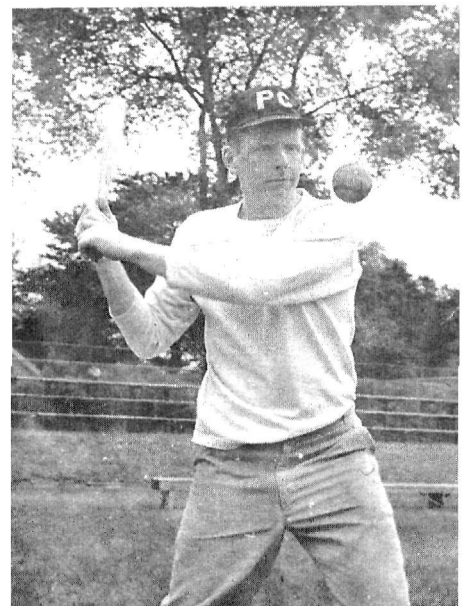

"Steffy throws . . .

. . . Billy connects."

"Do it right, Pops."

"Pretend it's Perrott"

TRACK

The P.C. Track team this year will have the opportunity to do well at the Interac meet in June. Each boy on the team has a specialty that will bring the team points. Co-Captain Schenkel will sprint and broad-jump, Co-Captain Miller will run the mile, Buek and Grotzinger will pole vault, Harry will shot put, Over will high jump, Haeussler will hurdle, and Steere and Carnwath will run the 440 and 880. Any new-comers to the Track team will have to work hard to get a place.

The long time coaching staff of Mr. Faber and Mr. Conard will have their work cut out for them, though. There is a rough schedule for the team this year. The biggest opposition is Malvern and Haverford, but G.F.S. and Episcopal will not be easy. With the good coaching and a little luck, the Track team will have a good season for 1966.

"I'm no leadbelly."

TENNIS

This year's tennis squad should do just as well as last year's fine group of boys did. Mr. Arms is the new coach and he will do his best to cement the team around Captain Fred Gabel and Barry Hargreaves and returning letterman Mike Markovitz.

Help is also coming from the ranks of last season's second team. These players are John Braxton, Eric Lee, and John Glöninger, among others.

All in all, Mr. Arms will have his arms full in filling Mr. Maroney's place as tennis coach. He is hoping for much support from the student body.

"Who won?"

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics, one of the fastest growing sports at Penn Charter, is now in its twelfth year of competition. The team is coached by Mr. Harold Ackerman and Mr. Bruce Lederer, both of whom were collegiate gymnastic champions.

This year's team was led by co-captains Steve Gibbs and Mike Cardone. Steve specialized on the still rings, side horse, and parallel bars. Mike led on the high bar, horse, and mats. Other returning lettermen were Dave Schenkel and Jon Sirlin. Rounding out the team were George Grotzinger, Jack Welsh, and Omar Dasent.

Considering the fact that Philadelphia is one of the largest gymnastics areas, and that P.C. suffered from lack of practice time and boys, the team achieved an admirable record. Next year the team should be strong, with a large number of returning boys.

"Hi, Lucy!"

GOLF

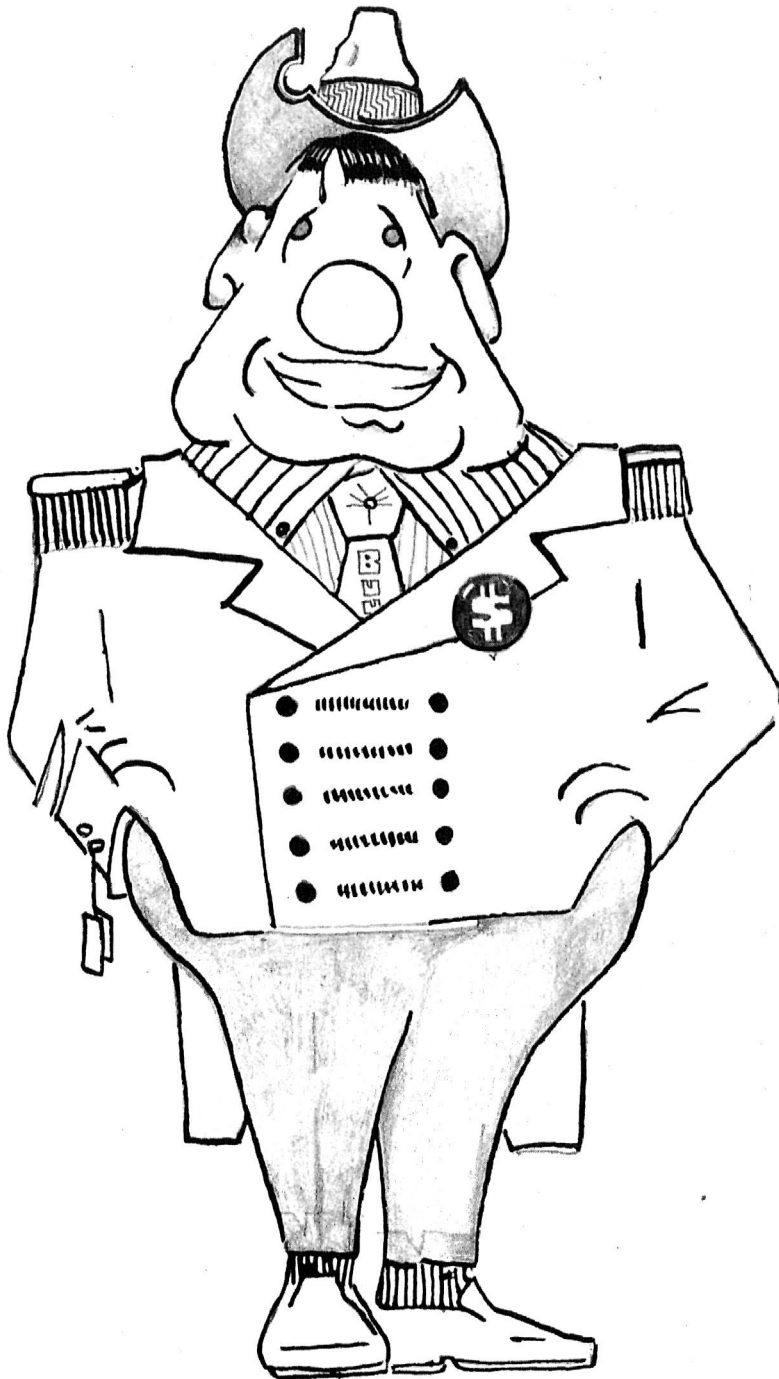

With the loss of only two lettermen from last year's Interac championship team, the 1966 Golf team has its eyes set on another league championship.

The squad is quite fortunate in having five returning lettermen this year. The golfers are Doak Grauer, Paul Greco, Ralph Ervin, Ed Marshall, and Bob Hendricks. These five boys will comprise the nucleus of the team with such people as Rich Green, Gary Friel, Dave O'Neill, and Jack Muldoon filling in the gaps.

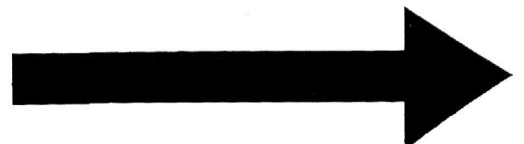

The team practices one day a week at the Flourtown Course of the Philadelphia Cricket Club under the tutelage of coach Linton. The course for an individual match is nine holes. With several matches scheduled and a stronger team than last year's, the team should win the Interac championship with very little difficulty.

Well, George and Bob would now say "Good-bye" to old Penn Charter. We won't say it's been fun, because most of the time it hasn't. We will always remember the ups and downs of our many years of tribulation, and we will look back on it with some semblance of pride. But now, we go out into the abyss of College, and the reality of life. Good luck to all who read this, and good luck to all those who don't.

Sincerely,

Out of the toil of yesterday,

 Emerge the scholars of P. C.

Where at last they can say,

 "I'm a senior finally!"

In the fell clutch of faculty,

 If they've fallen, they've not hit the ground,

And now in days of modesty

 Their thoughts are foggy, but profound.

Beyond this home of high school years,

 Looms but the dream of college dorm.

I'm sure the studies and the beers

 Are certain to leave them far from norm.

So farewell to the class of sixty-six.

 We'll see you again in heaven.

The records you've broken will be fixed

 By the class of sixty-seven.

A brilliant try, but not enough
To slice and spear our pride;
For when the pros get you next year
God bless your noble hide.

Just keep on going at this rate,
And you'll wind up as '68.

Why doesn't everybody at Penn Charter stop over at Wilburger's, pick up some new skis and ski clothing, and then when it's time for skiing . . . zowie!
