THE 1975
WILLIAM PENN CHARTER SCHOOL
CLASS RECORD

Wilbert L. Braxton

Headmaster

TO THE CLASS OF 1975

Your class is a distinguished one and will be long remembered by those who taught you and learned from you, who shared your successes and struggled with you through your obstacles.

Your talents are many and your achievements numerous. We are especially proud of the wholesome influence your leadership has had on the entire school.

You have demonstrated a desire to lead, and a desire to learn; a willingness to work for the joy of achievement; a competitiveness that produced notable individual accomplishments and an admirable class spirit. Your awareness of the serious purpose of education as a preparation for and a continuous part of life did not dim your zest for living.

Your class is unique, too, in that in 1975 Penn Charter celebrates 50 years in this building, and 100 years since Overseers consolidated their efforts and made Penn Charter into a leading college-preparatory independent school in the United States.

The best of good wishes go with you. Come back and see us often. You are part of Penn Charter forever.

Wilbert L. Braxton
Headmaster

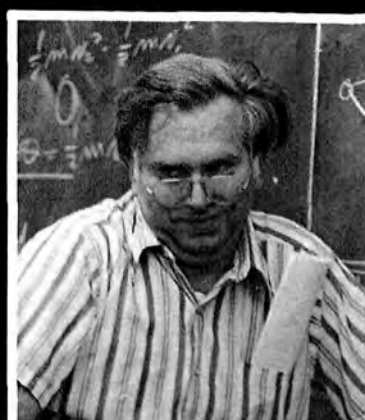

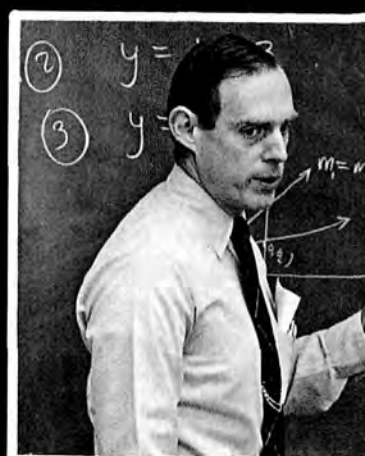

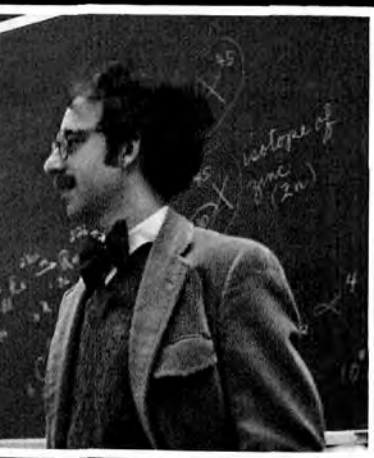

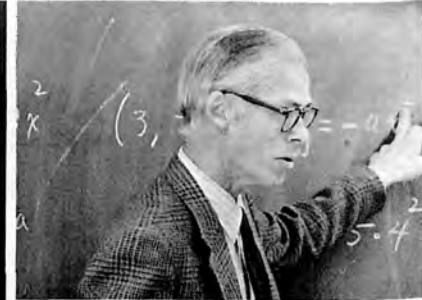

DEDICATION

Oliver W. Nuse

The Penn Charter Class of 1975 proudly dedicates this yearbook to Oliver W. Nuse, head of the Art Department. It is a privilege for us to honor him in this way for his twenty nine years of loyal and dedicated service to the school. Countless students have been beneficiaries not only of his talent and expertise in the Art Department, but of his extensive efforts in photography and the graphic arts, his organization of the painting of the halls and his creative displays of various art forms in the school corridors. These are fine accomplishments, but we remember Mr. Nuse best for his willingness to help us with our problems, his cooperative attitude toward all students and the selfless dedication and sacrifice of his own time so that we might learn.

Mr. Nuse, Ollie to some, has been a powerful influence for good. His retirement from Penn Charter will leave a void difficult to fill, but he leaves with our ringing declaration of "Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant."

Not marble, nor the gilded monuments
 Of princes, shall outlive this powerful rhyme;
 But you shall shine more bright in these contents
 Than unswept stone, besmeared with the sluttish time.
 When wasteful war shall statues overturn,
 And broils root out the work of masonry,
 Nor Mars his sword nor war's quick fire shall burn
 The living record of your memory
 'Gainst death and all oblivious enmity
 Shall you pace forth; your praise shall still find room
 Even in the eyes of all posterity
 That wear this world out to the ending doom.
 So, till the judgement that yourself arise,
 You live in this, and dwell in lovers' eyes.

REMEMBER WHEN ...

Reinke told us we were the worst class ever at P.C. ... which time?

Lamprell threw Gutt down two flights of stairs looking for a bomb.

Palaia got stuck in a trash can in fifth grade ... should have left him there.

Ernie followed Gutt's footsteps on the Astroturf.

Pat came to school three days in a row.

Hutch carried a briefcase... Ha! Ha!

Burt decided he wanted to be Evel Kneivel.

Dory was a senior.

Baer had a nice literary society meeting.

Specter outdueled R. Shields for the P.C. lightweight title.

Sambo made ALL-INTERAC in football.

Mole talked during lacrosse season... he did?

Eric captured the crowd during Twelfth Night.

Miller slept through Boober's party.

The Flyers won the Stanley Cup... we partied too.

Hal was a junior.

Homeroom #206 knocked down Glickman's blackboard... 17 times.

P.C. didn't have an Armenian enrolled... what were we missing?

Shields bought an entire lunch at Gino's.

Hey mom... Hey mom... Hey mom, mom... Hey mom, mom, mom.

Alma walked into Manning's party... Alllllmaa.

Harry enjoyed playing foot ball.

Benjie, Stew, Andy and Joel went to P.C. ... tough losses.

Preppie told Leon Bass he wouldn't talk about him at the dinner table.

Still, Shields and Bower fought over the babe that works at 7-11.

Thompson won a race to school, never, not with that car.

The football beam beat Malvern and G.A.... neither does Hench.

If you work in Center City, you should live in the park.

Downtown is a place, made of steel, glass and concrete. It's crowded, noisy, polluted and impersonal.

Gypsy Lane is private, spacious and quiet. A gracious, old estate within Fairmount Park, away from downtown. Yet well within the Center City lifestyle. You enjoy your own club house/pool/sun deck complex, your own all-weather tennis courts, and a private health spa, complete with sauna.

Gypsy Lane is a natural community with elegantly groomed lawns and pleasant walks. There's a security gate and patrol to assure your privacy and safety 24 hours a day. And free bus service to Center City as well as shopping on City Line.

Gypsy Lane condominium homes are spacious—with a separate dining area, large kitchen, wall-to-wall carpeting, deluxe appliances, private washer/dryer, individual climate control and ample closet space.

There are 4 different one and two bedroom models to choose from, starting at $29,990.

Less than 30 locations remain for this year. So when you come to Gypsy Lane and see what you've been looking for, be prepared to act.

This weekend, come discover Gypsy Lane. If you work in Center City, it's the only place to live.

THE CONDOMINIUMS OF

Gypsy Lane

Directions: From Center City take the East River Drive to the Wissahickon Drive. Turn right at the Park Guard Station onto Gypsy Lane. From City Avenue take the Wissahickon Drive and turn right at the Park Guard Station. Monday through Wednesday, noon to 8. Friday and Saturday, noon to 5. Sunday, noon to 7:30. Closed Thursday. A Special Thanks . . .

The Class of 1975 would like to give a special thanks to a wonderful woman, Frances, a member of the kitchen staff, who has added fun and joy to the lives of all who came in contact with her in the cafeteria. Her ready smile, her warm and infectious laugh, and her dedication to the students of Penn Charter have made our lives happier and richer. In her own way she has taught us much, and for this we are grateful.

As we leave, we extend to Frances our best wishes and our thanks.
